

prison; the Boston News Bureau declares that Heinze is to be president of the Silver King merger, and the present Silver King management is collecting options on half of the holdings of its shareholders admittedly to facilitate the sale of a controlling interest. All of these circumstances point unerringly to Heinze as the god in the machine. That he will duplicate his former successes in the Park City enterprise is earnestly to be desired. In his latest report to the stockholders of the United Copper company he says that the common stock paid 14 per cent and the preferred stock 6 per cent last year, while the addition to the surplus was as great as the dividends on common stock.

There is a very small fly in the Silver King ointment this week. Fifty men employed in the mill at Park City have walked out. They say that the state law restricts the hours of labor in mills to eight a day and they will be darned—and a few other things, if they are going to countenance lawbreaking by working nine. At this writing the mill is simply marking time. Unless a settlement is reached in a few days the trouble will affect the mine since the storage capacity of the ore bins is comparatively small and the mill alone prevents the congestion of the mine.

Signs are numerous that the long depression of Goldfield mining stocks is at an end. The most convincing indication of a revival is the rise on Wednesday of Goldfield Consolidated to $5.90 a share. The Boston News Bureau declares that Heinze is to be president of the Silver King merger, and the present Silver King management is collecting options on half of the holdings of its shareholders admittedly to facilitate the sale of a controlling interest. Locally the market has been shy on business, but prices have stiffened up. During the week ending Wednesday afternoon the sales included 228,463 shares for which $153,904.28 was paid. Swansea advanced from 31 to 38, South Columbus from $1.90 to $2.02½, Yankee from 48 to 53, Iron Blossom from 80 to 86, Black Jack from 44 to 47, Lower Mammoth from $2.25 to $2.37½ and Seven Troughs from 52 to 60. In the meantime Beck Tunnel went off from $1.77½ to $1.75 and Colorado Mining declined from $4.10 to $4. Sioux Con. made its initial bow Wednesday. The first sale was at 45 cents and the last at 46. Sioux is a Tintic proposition of which Senator Smoot is president. It starts business with six claims and $25,000 in the treasury. There was not much variation in the price of the unlisted shares. Exceptions were Standard Copper with a climb from 48 to 58; Crown Point, which was 17 cents up to 67, and Emma Copper, which touched 19, a new low mark. The ore and bullion settlements for the week were $637,000.

An exchange says Rockefeller possesses the faith that takes in the whole world. We believe it; at least the oil-producing portions of it.
